Michael Wesely. Orinoco River South of Guajibo Island, Venezuela, 1999, Fujiflex print, 46-3/4 x 62-1/2 inches.

James Kelly Contemporary is pleased to announce a group exhibition of works by selected artists. The exhibition will consist of photography, painting, drawing, and multiples and will include works by Brice Marden, Richard Serra, Sherrie Levine, Robert Mangold, Michael Wesely, Ed Ruscha, Nic Nicosia, and Hermes Payrhuber.

The exhibition features a graphite on cherry wood drawing by Sherrie Levine from 2000. The drawing is a continuation of the artist's use of the checkerboard pattern that she started in the late 1980's. The pattern spans the length of the plank flowing over the imperfections in the wood trailing off of the bottom and right edge.

Also on view will be a series of photographs of books by Ed Ruscha. The four black and white and one color image of books from 2001, show different combinations of book textblocks in various states of disrepair. The background has been painted white and the books are pictured alone or grouped together at different angles to highlight the tattered aspects of their cover material.

The multiples by Richard Serra and Brice Marden are from some the artist's most well recognized and important series, the Weight and Measure & Line Muse series.

The exhibition will be on view at the gallery till May 9th, and all of the works can be seen on the gallery website.
